

Job Description

We are seeking a dedicated and detail-oriented Technician to join our team, focusing on assembly and quality assurance to ensure our products meet the highest standards.

Please note that this position can be either temporary or permanent.

Role responsibilities

- Diagnose and repair technical issues related to machinery, electronics..
- Work closely with engineers, and production teams to address complex technical challenges.
- Assist in field installations, repairs, and maintenance
- Conduct tests to verify system accuracy and performance
- Follow established protocols and procedures to maintain consistency and quality.
- Generate reports on equipment status, performance, and any issues encountered

Requirements

- Technical background
- Hands-on experience in assembly and testing of systems combining mechanics and electronics
- Profession with Google Workspace and Google Sheet
- Driving license and a car
- Fluent English

Preferable profile

- Strong attention to detail and excellent manual dexterity.
- Decision-making, problem-solving, and a 'get the job done' attitude.
- Experience with reading technical specifications and drawings
- Experience with electronics, including the ability to read schematics and troubleshoot electronic components.
- Practical experience in the agriculture industry

Ready to join our dynamic team? Send your resume and cover letter to HR_tech@bloomx.ag. We look forward to hearing from you!